Art Luna, a hair-garden designer, Clarke, an interior at their home in hood hills. Facing exterior of Clarke 1930s Spanish use; the tile turned after San See Resources.

Facing page: In the living room, a zebra-skin ottoman and an 1881 French overmantel mirror mix with 1930s French club chairs from Atelia; the hurricane sconces are from Hollyhock. This page: The tuxedo sofa is slipcovered in pale blue linen; the Art Deco-style tray is from Paul Marra. See Resources.

The library's 1920s Portuguese black claw-foot table from Brenda Antin is paired with vintage red leather barrel-back chairs. An 1840s English bronze chandelier from the Fainting Couch is powered by candlelight; the 18th-century French oil painting is from Hollyhock. See Resources.
